TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

In Session at Millersburg Saturday Has Large Attendance.

The Bourbon County Teachers Association met in Millersburg Saturday with Mrs. Anna Doty at the Public School building. It was the best meeting of the kind ever held in that city and was largely attended. All of the county schools entered specimens of their work to compete for the prizes given by the Bourbon County School Improvement League. The rooms of the school building were decorated early in the morning with the children's work, and the judges were busy until nearly noon awarding prizes. The contest for many of the articles was so close the judges experienced many difficulties in making the choice. At noon an elaborate lunch prepared by the teachers of the Millersburg District was served. The afternoon was devoted to the Domestic Science work, and a number of eminent speakers were present. Addresses were made by the following: Dr. A. S. McKenzie, State College, Lexington; T. W. Vinson, Frankfort; R. S. Eubanks, Lexington; Mr. Deetrick, Winchester; R. Dean Squires, Carlisle; T. J. Coats, Richmond; State Supervisor of Rural Schools. The addresses were all good and well received.

Prof. Coates' address was full of thought which should have been carried away by every teacher present. He is a fluent speaker, a rapid thinker, and places his thoughts before his hearers in an interesting way.

At the close of the addresses Miss Robins, County Superintendent, read the prize list. Millersburg carried away six first prizes and three seconds, while Ford's Mill carried away five first prizes and four seconds. Three sets of books were given away by the different speakers of the afternoon to the schools getting the first, second and third prizes.

The following teachers were present: Misses Burns, Miller, Kerr, Kiser, Clay, Talbott, Ockerman, Peterson, McDaniel, Miller, Doty, Elliott, Lenihan, Nannie Clarke, Elizabeth Clarke, Howard, Neal, Rummans, Rice, Mason, Hill, Sadie Clarke, Gorham, Virgil Cornish, Crutcher, Ardery, Pryor, Oliver.

The following members of the Bourbon County School Improvement League from Paris, attended the meeting. Miss Mabel Robbins, Mrs. R. B. Hutchcraft, Mrs. F. P. Lowry, Mrs. Walter Payne, Mrs. Robert Goggin, Mrs. Albert Mitchell, Mrs. Wade Whitley and Mrs. William Myall. Others attending were Elder W. E. Ellis, Mrs. Ellis, Miss Mary Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Wilcox, Miss Clara Bacon, Dr. O. L. Marshall, Mr. Pearce Paton, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Current, Ruddle Mills, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. The Literary Society of the Paris High School held the last open session of the year in the High School Auditorium Friday evening. A large number of patrons and friends of the school attended and the program was thoroughly enjoyed.

Mr. Eli Friedman, president of the society, presided at the session and delivered the opening address. Instead of the usual debate which has marked the closing session of the society heretofore, a representative of the Senior, Junior and Sophomore classes engaged in a contest for the literary honors of the year.

Mr. Edward Myall, representing the Junior class, took as his subject "Columbus"; Mr. Fennell Galloway, of the Seniors, "Taps"; and Mr. Dennis V. Snapp, of the Sophomores, "The Mob of Yesterday." Each of the orations were well prepared and presented. The honor went to the Junior class, the judges, Rev. E. M. Lightfoot, Geo. H. Harris and D. Y. L. Farley, deciding in favor of Mr. Myall.

The High School Glee Club rendered a number of beautiful musical numbers, and the beautifully illustrated poem, "That Old Sweetheart of Mine," with Mr. Barnett as eraser, and a school paper by Mr. Wayne Cottingham, occupied a prominent place on the program.

Bourbon College Closed.

A case of scarlet fever developed at the Bourbon Female College a few days ago has been the cause of closing the institution for the present term, which is near at end. Miss Lucy Marston, of Monterey, Ky., a pupil of the institution, was stricken with the disease, and rather than jeopardize the health of the forty boarding pupils, and upon the advice of physicians, it was considered the best plan to close the school. All of the entertainments, recitals, and commencement exercises, which have been arranged at the close of the term, have been declared off, and the pupils have been dismissed, all of them returning to their homes.

OLD FIRE HORSE

Passes to Reward After Years in Department.

John W. Thomas, for years the pride of the fire department, a piece of horseflesh as good as any that ever had the lines pulled over them, is no more. Burdened with the weight of twenty-eight years, a few days ago he "cashed in his checks."

John, as he was called for short, was bought for the department when the late John W. Thomas was a member of the council and for him the animal was named. For years he was the stable mate of the lamented Grover, a big sorrel, who hauled the hose wagon and fire ladders to the scene of innumerable fires. Long after Grover was retired John held a place in the department. He drew the ladder truck until new apparatus replaced it, when younger animals were brought into service, and when his old time speed began to wane, he was taken from his old quarters in the engine house to the stables in the quarry lot.

Then the most painful event in his career occurred. He must earn his feed and consequently he was given a place between the shafts of a light road wagon used in street cleaning. The glory of his past soon faded and he was regarded as nothing more or less than a common work horse. But those who knew John differed in the opinion. Intelligence was marked in every line of his coal black head, and never for once did he forget the sound of the fire gong.

As well as John performed his duties in the department so well did he acquit himself in his lowly position. Never faltering, he performed his tasks until the weight of years and toil told heavily upon the equine once the pride of every man, woman and child in the village.

His usefulness passed, forgotten by the children who would rub his velvet-like nose and feed him loaf sugar at every opportunity, humiliated at being reduced to rank, and perhaps broken hearted, John was sent to a farm at the edge of town to spend his declining days. A short time afterwards he became ill and it was only a few days later that he departed this life. If there is a horse heaven John is surely now in the golden realm, singing the glad songs with the angels.

A Sanitary Location.

A sanitary location is the greatest desire of the home builder. Rosedale Addition is equipped with a sewer system that makes the home sites more desirable than any offered in this city in recent years. Concrete walks and beautiful shade trees greatly beautifies the locality. Attend the sale of Rosedale lots on Wednesday May 14, at 2 o'clock and buy a home site. Fifty dollars in gold given away free on the day of the sale.

County Clerks Not Entitled to Pay.

County Clerk Clerks are not entitled to collect for statistical work in the tax recapitulation sheets, and their work this year is paid for under the old, instead of the 1912 act, according to Assistant Attorney General M. M. Logan, in an opinion given Assistant State Auditor G. B. Likens. They have been receiving two cents a line. The 1912 act fixes their compensation at five cents a line, but it is held that the application of the 1912 act now would increase the compensation of the clerks during their term of office, which is unconstitutional. Clerks elected next November and thereafter will receive their compensation under the 1912 act.

Underwood Bill Passes House.

The Underwood tariff bill, proclaimed by the Democratic party as the answer to its platform pledge to reduce the tariff downward, was passed by the House late Thursday. The vote was 231 to 139, five Democrats voting against the bill, and two Republicans voting for it. Four Progressives supported the measure and fourteen opposed it, while one Independent Progressive joined with the majority.

When Speaker Clark announced the vote in loud tones that revealed the satisfaction in the arrival of "the day he long had sought," exuberant Democrats hoisted a stuffed Democratic donkey over the heads of their colleagues in the rear of the chamber, a faint ripple of applause followed, and the gavel fell on the first chapter in the history of President Wilson's extra session of Congress.

The Senate Finance Committee will study the bill, while the House Ways and Means Committee will organize committees preparatory to the transaction of further business next month.

WANTED IN ARKANSAS

Negro Alleged to Have Killed Sheriff Arrested Here.

Upon a telegram received by Sheriff A. S. Thompson from S. C. Hooten, Sheriff at Tyroza, Ark., Ben Vinson, colored, was arrested at Shawhan yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff J. O. Marshall and is now in the Paris jail, awaiting the arrival of the Arkansas officials.

The negro was in the employ of the Grace Construction Co., which has under construction a large section of the double track of the Louisville & Nashville railroad between this city and Cincinnati. He submitted to arrest very quietly but would not discuss the matter further than that he was not the man wanted by the Arkansas officials.

The telegram received by Sheriff Thompson gave no details of the alleged killing, and contained only a description of the man wanted. Deputy Marshall was sent to Shawhan at once and found the negro engaged at work. After the capture Sheriff Thompson sent a telegram to Sheriff Hooten, informing him that the negro was under arrest and to advise when to expect an official from that State.

Mrs. Henry Bunker, of West Point, Ky., owns the only egg-laying Leghorn rooster. The bird was added to her flock this spring and has a beautiful large red comb and a great plump tail and all the marks of a pure-bred Leghorn rooster. Mrs. Bunker noticed that the rooster would sit upon the nest and when in the yard cackle like a hen.

A few days ago Mrs. Bunker found the rooster sitting upon a China nest egg and drove him off. No other fowls were about and directly the rooster went back on the nest, when Mrs. Bunker again drove him off and was astonished to find a warm, moist, freshly-laid egg beside the China egg. The rooster crows and cackled just as is usual with hens after laying.
